

446 Empowering Personal Finance

Project Description

Want to reach your goals and live your dreams? Start by investing in YOU! Learning how to manage your finances gives you the power to make smart choices and do amazing things. Completing the Exploring Personal Finance project first is recommended but not required.

To Complete the Project

1. Complete all eight activities and all the Talking It Over questions.
2. Take part in at least two learning experiences.
3. Become involved in at least two leadership/citizenship activities.
4. Complete a project review.
5. Take part in 4-H project judging. If you choose not to participate in judging, plan to discuss and review completion of your project with your 4-H Advisor.

Judging of this Project

Interview judging for this project will be on Non-Livestock judging day at the Jr. Fair building. Please refer to the 4-H calendar for judging dates.

*Requirements for Judging:

1. Completed project book.
2. Display of something learned in the project.

Project Display

Prepare a display that shows the judge and fair visitors what you learned and accomplished in your project. For example, something you made, visuals or other items used to complete project activities, or a poster to share learned information.

Your project book cannot serve as your project display.

Display Areas

At the Wood County Fair, your 4-H project will be displayed in the Wood County Jr. Fair building in your 4-H Club assigned booth.

Project Pick-Up

You must pick up your project display at the end of the fair or arrange for someone to get it for you. Please refer to the Wood County Fair book or the 4-H Newsletter for project release times.

Projects not picked up by 3:00 p.m. on the last day of the fair will be disposed of.
