

588 – The Writer in You

Project Description

Find the motivation you need to start or continue your exploration of the art of writing. Explore why to write, where to get ideas, theme, character, plot and setting, word choice, imagery, and dialogue. Keep it all in one place to create a portfolio each year.

To Complete the Project

1. Complete all 11 activities and all of the Talking It Over questions.
2. Take part in at least 2 learning experiences.
3. Take part in at least 2 citizenship/leadership activities.
4. Complete the summary review.

Judging of this Project

There will be no interview judging for this project. The completed project must be turned into the Extension Office by June 30th. Projects will be judged after this date, and results will be posted with other project results.

*Requirements for Judging:

1. Completed project book.
2. Display of something learned in the project.

Project Display

Prepare a display that shows the judge and fair visitors what you learned and accomplished in your project. For example, something you made, visuals or other items used to complete project activities, or a poster to share learned information.

Your project book cannot serve as your project display.

Display Areas

At the Wood County Fair, your 4-H project will be displayed in the Wood County Jr. Fair building in your 4-H Club assigned booth.

Project Pick-Up

You must pick up your project display at the end of the fair or arrange for someone to get it for you. Please refer to the Wood County Fair book or the 4-H Newsletter for project release times.

Projects not picked up by 3:00 p.m. on the last day of the fair will be disposed of.
